

GELDS: Structure and Alignment

Learning Domain:
Cognitive Development: Mathematics
(Strand 2 – Measurement and Comparison)

Standard: CD-MA4 - The child will sort, seriate, classify, and create patterns.

Age-Appropriate Indicators

CD-MA4.0a
Explores objects with different characteristics.

0-12 months

CD-MA4.1b
Differentiates between two objects with different characteristics with adult guidance.

12-24 months

CD-MA4.2b
Matches objects with similar attributes or characteristics.

24-36 months

CD-MA4.3b
Sorts objects by one attribute such as color, shape or size.

36-48 months

CD-MA4.4b
Sorts and classifies objects using one or more attributes (color, shape, size) or relationships (animals on a farm or zoo).

48-60 months

MCCK.MD.3
Classify objects into given categories; count the numbers of objects in each category and sort the categories by count.

Kindergarten

Common Core
Georgia
Performance
Standard